

Career Opportunity: Community Advocate

Rape and Abuse Crisis Center (RACC) provides crisis intervention, advocacy, counseling and education to victims of domestic/dating violence, elder abuse, trafficking/ sexual exploitation and child sexual abuse and prevention programming to the community. To enhance these essential services, RACC has the following opportunity available:

Community Advocate –

The Community Advocate will provide crisis intervention and ongoing case management for individuals who have experienced elder abuse, human trafficking, exploitation, domestic violence, and sexual assault. This position will be responsible for intensive case management, crisis intervention, and outreach to multiple sites. The successful candidate will work collaboratively with law enforcement, social services, and other system professionals. Experience working with vulnerable populations beneficial. Must be able to work independently, engage with a multi-disciplinary team, and provide community presentations.

This position requires an understanding of dynamics related to human trafficking, domestic violence and sexual assault. A Bachelor's degree in social work, criminal justice, or other human service related field required.

To view the full job description visit raccfm.com

For confidential consideration, please send cover letter and resume to the Rape & Abuse Crisis Center, Attn: Chief Program Officer, PO Box 2984, Fargo ND 58108 or email employment@raccfm.com. No calls please. Postmark deadline 10/26/20.